

UNIZA International Week

13-17 March 2017

30 years of ERASMUS
Experiencing and building Europe through study mobility

ERASMUS+ Day at UNIZA 16 March 2017

Under the patronage of His Excellency Mr Christophe Léonzi, Ambassador of France to Slovakia, and within the UNIZA International week, the ERASMUS+ day will highlight the benefits of studying abroad and feature discussions and first-hand experiences from various points of view (European Union member state, UNIZA management, students and academic staff, alumni of the ERASMUS programme and employers). The ERASMUS+ day will also be an opportunity to meet companies and UNIZA partners in the UNIZA Main Hall from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Venue: Aula 3, University of Žilina

Programme

Moderator: Assoc. Prof. Jozef Ristvej, Ph.D., UNIZA Vice-Rector for International Relations & Marketing

- 10.00 – 10.10 Opening Address: Effects of mobility on the internationalisation of UNIZA and its strategic aspects
Dr. h. c. prof. Ing. Tatiana Čorejová, Ph.D., rector of UNIZA
- 10.10 – 10.40 Importance of mobility in 21st century Europe
Mr. Adelin Royer, First Secretary of the French Embassy in the Slovak Republic
- 10.40 – 11.00 How does Erasmus mobility impact personal growth, professional career and employability?
Dr. Giuseppe Lugano, ERAdiate team member and former Vice-President of ESN International
- 11.00 – 11.20 International environment as an important part of a modern global company
Ing. Ján Krúpa, Scheidt and Bachmann
- 11.20 – 11.40 The role of organisations supporting mobility at UNIZA
Ján Kolarčík, ESN UNIZA on behalf of Natália Dodoková, acting president of ESN UNIZA
Mgr. Dominika Kacejová, SAIA programmes coordinator for Žilina and Trenčín regions
- 11.40 – 12.00 Discussion